DAVID H. STEVENS, CMB, NAMED NEW ADVISOR TO THE GEORGE MASON MORTGAGE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Fairfax, Virginia – GEORGE MASON MORTGAGE, LLC, a subsidiary of United Bank (NASDAQ: UBSI), is pleased to announce that David Stevens, former President and CEO of the Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA), has joined the George Mason Mortgage Board of Directors as an advisor.

David Stevens, Certified Mortgage Banker (CMB), has a wealth of knowledge in the real estate, finance and mortgage banking industry. His extraordinary tenure in the business led him to serve in the Obama Administration as Assistant Secretary of Housing and FHA Commissioner from early 2009 through March 2011. David then became the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Mortgage Bankers Association from 2011-2018. He retired from the MBA in 2018 and is currently involved with advisory endeavors in real estate finance.

Bill Landon, Chief Executive Officer of George Mason Mortgage, states, "We are beyond thrilled to have Dave supporting GMM with strategic efforts and initiatives. Dave has earned numerous accolades throughout his extensive career and we are very pleased to welcome him to the GMM family."

"I am very excited to join George Mason Mortgage. Bill Landon is a highly respected CEO in the mortgage industry and George Mason is one of those iconic mortgage banking firms headquartered in the mid-Atlantic region. With a strong foundation, reputation and great integrity, I am honored to be part of this company. In such dynamic times and looking forward, I am eager to support Bill and the George Mason Mortgage team in achieving its goals," shared David.
